Significant financial interests are involved and must be disclosed where one or more of the following financial interests of the investigator (and those of the investigator's spouse/domestic partner or dependent children) reasonably appears to be related to the investigator's Institutional responsibilities:

- A significant financial interest exists if an equity interest that, when aggregated for the investigator and the investigator's spouse/ domestic partner and dependent children, exceeds $10,000 in value as determined through reference to public prices or other reasonable measures of market value, and represent more than a 5% ownership interest in any single entity
- A significant financial interest exists when salary, royalties or other payments that, when aggregated for the investigator and the investigator's spouse/domestic partner of dependent children, have exceeded or are expected to exceed $10,000 during any immediately preceding or following 12 month period.

For National Science Foundation (NSF), significant financial interest does not include:

- Salary, royalties or other remuneration from the applicant Institution
- Any ownership interest in the Institution, if the Institution is an applicant under the Small Business Innovation Program or Small Business Technology Transfer Program
- Income from seminars, lectures, or teaching engagements sponsored by public or nonprofit entities
- Income from service on advisory committees or review panels for public or nonprofit entities
- Equity interest and/or salary, royalty and other payments do not exceed the thresholds in the section regarding NSF immediately above
